

Digital Product and Content Policy

Effective Date: 23rd June 2024 V1

Introduction

This Digital Product and Content Policy governs the use of our digital products and outlines the guidelines for the content provided. By accessing or using our digital products, you agree to comply with the terms and conditions stated in this policy. It is important to carefully read and understand this policy to ensure a positive user experience.

1. Crediting Thought Leadership and Influencers

At Cocreators-BtG, we value and respect the thought leadership and influencers of others. We strive to provide proper credit and attribution to the original creators and sources of information in our digital products. However, if you believe that we have inadvertently missed giving credit or have any concerns regarding the sources we have referenced, please contact us immediately. We will promptly investigate and rectify any oversights.

2. External Links and References

Our digital products does include external links and references for additional information or resources. These links are provided for convenience and informational purposes only. We cannot guarantee the accuracy, relevance, or availability of the content on external websites. The inclusion of such links does not imply endorsement or responsibility for the content, products, or services provided on those websites. Users should exercise caution and discretion when accessing external links and resources.

3. Outdated or Incorrect Information

While we make every effort to ensure the accuracy and relevance of the information provided in our digital products, we cannot guarantee that all information is up to date or free from errors. The digital landscape is constantly evolving, and information may become outdated or inaccurate over time. Therefore, we cannot be held accountable for any outdated or incorrect information presented in our digital products. Users are encouraged to verify information independently and consult reliable sources for the most current and accurate data.

4. User-Generated Content

Our digital products may allow users to submit or contribute content, such as comments, reviews, or feedback. We welcome user participation and engagement, but we reserve the right to moderate, edit, or remove any user-generated content that violates our policies or contains inappropriate, offensive, or misleading information. Users are solely responsible for the content they submit and should ensure that it complies with applicable laws and regulations.

5. Intellectual Property Rights

All content, including text, images, graphics, logos, trademarks, and audiovisual materials, provided in our digital products is protected by intellectual property rights, including copyright laws. Users are prohibited from reproducing, distributing, modifying, or using any content from our digital products outside of their organisation without obtaining prior written permission from Cocreators-BtG or the respective content owners, if applicable.

6. Limitation of Liability

While we strive to provide accurate and reliable information, our digital products are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. We do not warrant or guarantee the completeness, accuracy, or reliability of the content provided. Users acknowledge that the use of our digital products is at their own risk, and we shall not be held liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages arising from the use or inability to use our digital products and content.

7. Privacy and Data Protection

We are committed to protecting the privacy and personal information of our users. Our Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and disclose personal information. By using our digital products, you consent to the collection and processing of your personal information as described in our Privacy Policy.

8. Policy Updates

We reserve the right to update or modify this Digital Product and Content Policy at any time without prior notice. Any changes to this policy will be effective immediately upon posting. It is your responsibility to review this policy periodically for any updates or modifications.

9. Incorrect use of Credits

If users believe that proper credit or attribution has not been given to the original creators and sources of information in our digital products, they should contact us immediately. We take the issue of crediting thought leadership and influencers seriously and will promptly investigate any concerns raised. Users can reach out to us through the designated contact channels provided on our website or within the digital product itself. We appreciate your assistance in ensuring the accuracy and integrity of our content.

10. Contact Information

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Digital Product and Content Policy, please contact us at support@cocreators-BtG.com. We appreciate your feedback and will respond to your inquiries as soon as possible.

11. Conclusion

This Digital Product and Content Policy sets forth the guidelines and terms of use for our digital products. By accessing or using our digital products, you agree to comply with this policy. We strive to provide accurate and valuable information, but users should independently verify the information and exercise their own judgment. Your privacy and data protection are important to us, and we encourage you to review our Privacy Policy. If you have any questions or need further assistance, please contact us.

Thank you for choosing our digital products.
